2010 Awards Banquet

The 101st Annual Awards Banquet is behind us now, all that remains are the memories. It was a delightful event in New York, even the weather was grand. There were 200 members and non-members alike milling about and enjoying the Silent Auction and visiting with old friends.

Marty Cooper was brilliant as the keynote speaker which was then followed by dinner and the Awards presented to Donald Cox, Timothy J. Duffy, Stephen Meer, Paula Nelson-Shira, and Richard Somers.

Seven members were elevated to Fellow status, they were Timothy J. Duffy, William F. Lieske Jr., Louis M. Manno, Richard Mirgon, John J. Sullivan, Larry G. Weber, and Don McFarland.

The Silent Auction brought in over $2300, with many items. Donations to the Education Committee and the Scholarship Committee were collected in the table envelopes totaled $455 and $599 respectively.

Thank you to all the banquet sponsors.

Technical Symposium

The Technical Symposium was held on Friday, from 3-5 pm with Andy Seybold moderating with more than 50 attending. Andrew Seybold was the moderator and speaker along with David Bart and John Facella. Speakers biographies and presentations are on the RCA website under Banquets.

Alan Caldwell Received Fifth Annual Richard DeMello Award

The National Public Safety Telecommunications Council (NPSTC) awarded Alan Caldwell, volunteer firefighter for over 30 years and senior adviser to the International Association of Fire Chiefs (IAFC), the fifth annual DeMello Award at the 101st Annual Awards Banquet of the Radio Club of America (RCA) on November 19, 2010, at the Park Central Hotel in New York City. Each year, NPSTC presents an award to one public safety communications person who has demonstrated the highest levels of personal and professional conduct and performance in the local, state, and national public safety communications arena. NPSTC's Governing Board was pleased to present the 2010 Richard DeMello award, named to honor the achievements of Mr. DeMello, one of the founding fathers of NPSTC, to Mr. Caldwell. .more..
