

CARL MATHIS
M 1980 F 2001

Carl J. Mathis has been President of Power Sales Company, a manufacturer's rep firm in Raleigh, NC since 1986. Previously was with Panasonic Industrial Company, Telecommunications Division, NEC America, Inc., US Communications Corp., and Motorola. He holds a BS Degree from the University of North Alabama in Business Administration. He served as a US Army officer including service in Vietnam. He is a Certified Professional Manufacturers Representative (CPMR) and a Certified Sales Professional (CSP). President of the Manufacturers Representatives Educational Research Foundation (MRERF) and Training Committee Chairman for the Communications Marketing Association (CMA). Married 35 years to Penny with two adult children and one grandchild.

Position Statement

I would like to work with the Board to improve our educational activities. It is very important that we never forget the charitable and educational mission of the club and that we operate in that spirit.

I would also like to work to develop and expand the scholarship program by working to bring awareness of the ability to grow the fund through the use of trusts, corporate donations, wills and planned giving programs.